OBITUARY

Mrs. Ella Norman Moore was born on April 25, 1885, in Mansura, Louisiana. She was the daughter of Silistine Norman and Elizabeth Jones Norman. At an early age, she confessed Christ and joined Little Zion Baptist Church, in Louisiana.

She served faithfully for 70 years. She was a Sunday School teacher, deaconess and Mother of the church.

For many years, she served as a nurse midwife, and was always on the alert to help others. Her influence will live long, to be felt by those who were encouraged, helped and cheered by her advice, friendship, and counsel.

In 1969, she moved to Los Angeles, and united with Bright Star Church of God in Christ, under the leadership of Elder W. Dickson. She attended faithfully, as long as her health permitted.

She departed this life, March 3, 1979, at Manchester Manor. She leaves to cherish her memory, three daughters, Effa Thymes and Ella Simmions, of Los Angeles, and Mary McGlory, of Glenmora, La.; one son, Jack Moore, of Lake Charles, La.; one sister, Selena Anderson, of Louisiana; 27 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren, 11 great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives, and friends.
